CARCOAR VILLAGE FAIR

The Carcoar Village Association acknowledges that the festival takes place on Wiradjuri country, on a day that many indigenous people mourn. We would like to pay our respects to the Wiradjuri Elders - past, present and emerging - for holding the memories of this very special place.

Welcome time travellers to Carcoar, the village that time forgot! We're so glad to have you here for the day.

Check out our historic buildings, such as the courthouse, where you can hear thrilling tales of bushrangers. Have a dip in the Belubula and listen to some great local musicians. Grab a bite to eat at one of our many food vendors, and have a drink in our massive beer garden.

And perhaps, if you're lucky, you might spot some historic locals who have been lured from the pages of history to the 21st century for one day.

Thanks for coming. Your entry fee ensures this event can happen each year, as it has for almost four decades.

A huge thank you to our sponsors and supporters, and to the volunteers who make this all happen. Special shout out to Liam Nesbitt for his time and materials to make a lot of the cool stuff you'll see around the village.
